THE NAVY ON THE PACIFIC.

One of the visiting Congressmen has given Trans-Pacific Trade some information in regard to the intentions of the Navy Department on the Pacific, and the policy that actuates the movement of warships. The recent authorized additions to the navy were brought about by the realization of a prompt need for a better defense of the Pacific Coast. It is stated that:

"For several reasons the department has frowned upon the suggestion of sending battleships to the Pacific. In the first place it believes that, to weaken the Atlantic fleet by transferring any of the battleships to the Pacific Coast, would be robbing Peter to pay Paul." In the second place, the dispatch of a battleship squadron to the Pacific might be interpreted by Japan as an unfriendly and menacing move, and what is more to the point, the necessary coal and coilers for such a maneuver are not available at this time.

In concluding the interview, the Congressman expresses his belief that the Navy Department intends to use Hawaii more in the future as a naval base and coaling station, and that its importance warrants this.

The O. S. S. Sierra, Capt. Houdletta, arrived from San Francisco at 9 a. m. yesterday, having made the run in the good time of 5 days 21 hours 49 minutes. Fine weather was experienced throughout the voyage. The steamer brought 30 passengers and 1670 tons of cargo.

The Sierra brought in mail six days in San Francisco, which was expected to be aboard the Sierra. The mail will arrive by the S. S. Mongolia due today. Much annoyance was caused by the non-arrival of mail. Had it come to hand by the Sierra a return mail could have been taken out by the S. S. Asarangi departing for Victoria at 4 p. m. yesterday.

The cost of new buildings erected in San Francisco now totals up to $63,575,000.
